EXPLANATION OF INHERENT RISKS AND PARTICIPATION AGREEMENT FOR THE SFBB JUNIOR SAILING SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

NOTE: The junior sailor and the parents or legal guardians must sign this form before the junior sailor may participate in the SFBB Junior Sailing Scholarship Program.

Sailing is an exciting sport that involves physical exertion during warm summer days. Your child must be physically fit, able to swim and capable of handling a sailboat in these conditions. There are some inherent risks to the sport. Though there are certain risks in the sport they are seldom incurred while participating in a well-supervised program. These injuries include, but are not limited to: death, paralysis due to serious back and neck injuries, brain damage, damage to internal organs, serious injuries to bones, ligaments, joints and tendons. Such injuries can result not only, in temporary loss of function, but also in serious impairment of future physical, psychological and social abilities, including the ability to earn a living.

In the effort to make the sport of sailing as safe as possible, the staff will instruct sailors concerning the rules of sailing, correct applied mechanical skills and safe conduct while on the water. It is vital that student sailors follow the coaches’ instructions, training rules and safety procedures at all times to decrease possible injury or harm.

We have read and understand the above information concerning the inherent risks of sailing. We understand and assume all risks and responsibilities associated with sailing. We further agree to hold the Sailing Foundation of Barnegat Bay and associated yacht clubs, its employees, representatives, instructors, volunteers and agents harmless of any and all liability, claims or legal actions in connection with participation in all activities related to the SFBB Junior Sailing Scholarship Program.

In signing this form, we assume the inherent risks of sailing and waive all future legal action by our heirs’ estate, executor, administrator assignees, family members and ourselves. We agree to abide by all the rules and obligations that are stated in the Junior Sailing Handbook of each participating yacht club.
